Blue Army (June 9) - Can Have My Yes

“The God who wants us. The God who stands for us. The God who wants us close. The God who stands in front of us, covering covering. Be still my soul. I am undone by this God who wants us. Undone by your love. Let there be nothing between me and this God, who is after all of my heart. Who is after all of us. Worthy, worthy. Holy. Holy.

Come take your claim. What would you like to occupy?
Come stake your name. Draw it in the mud. Come stake your claim. What would you like to occupy? Anything of MINE. Anything. Come stake your claim. What would you like to occupy? Come and write your name in that place.
Let's look together. Let us study together. Let's process together - this place. Until it praises! Until it praises again.
Until it praises. Until it's reclaimed, reclaimed.

Matot-Masei: Every word, Every step
Va'etchana: And I Pleaded/Shabbat of Comfort

Acts 2:26

“I’m glad from the inside out, ecstatic; I’ve pitched my tent in the land of hope.” MSG

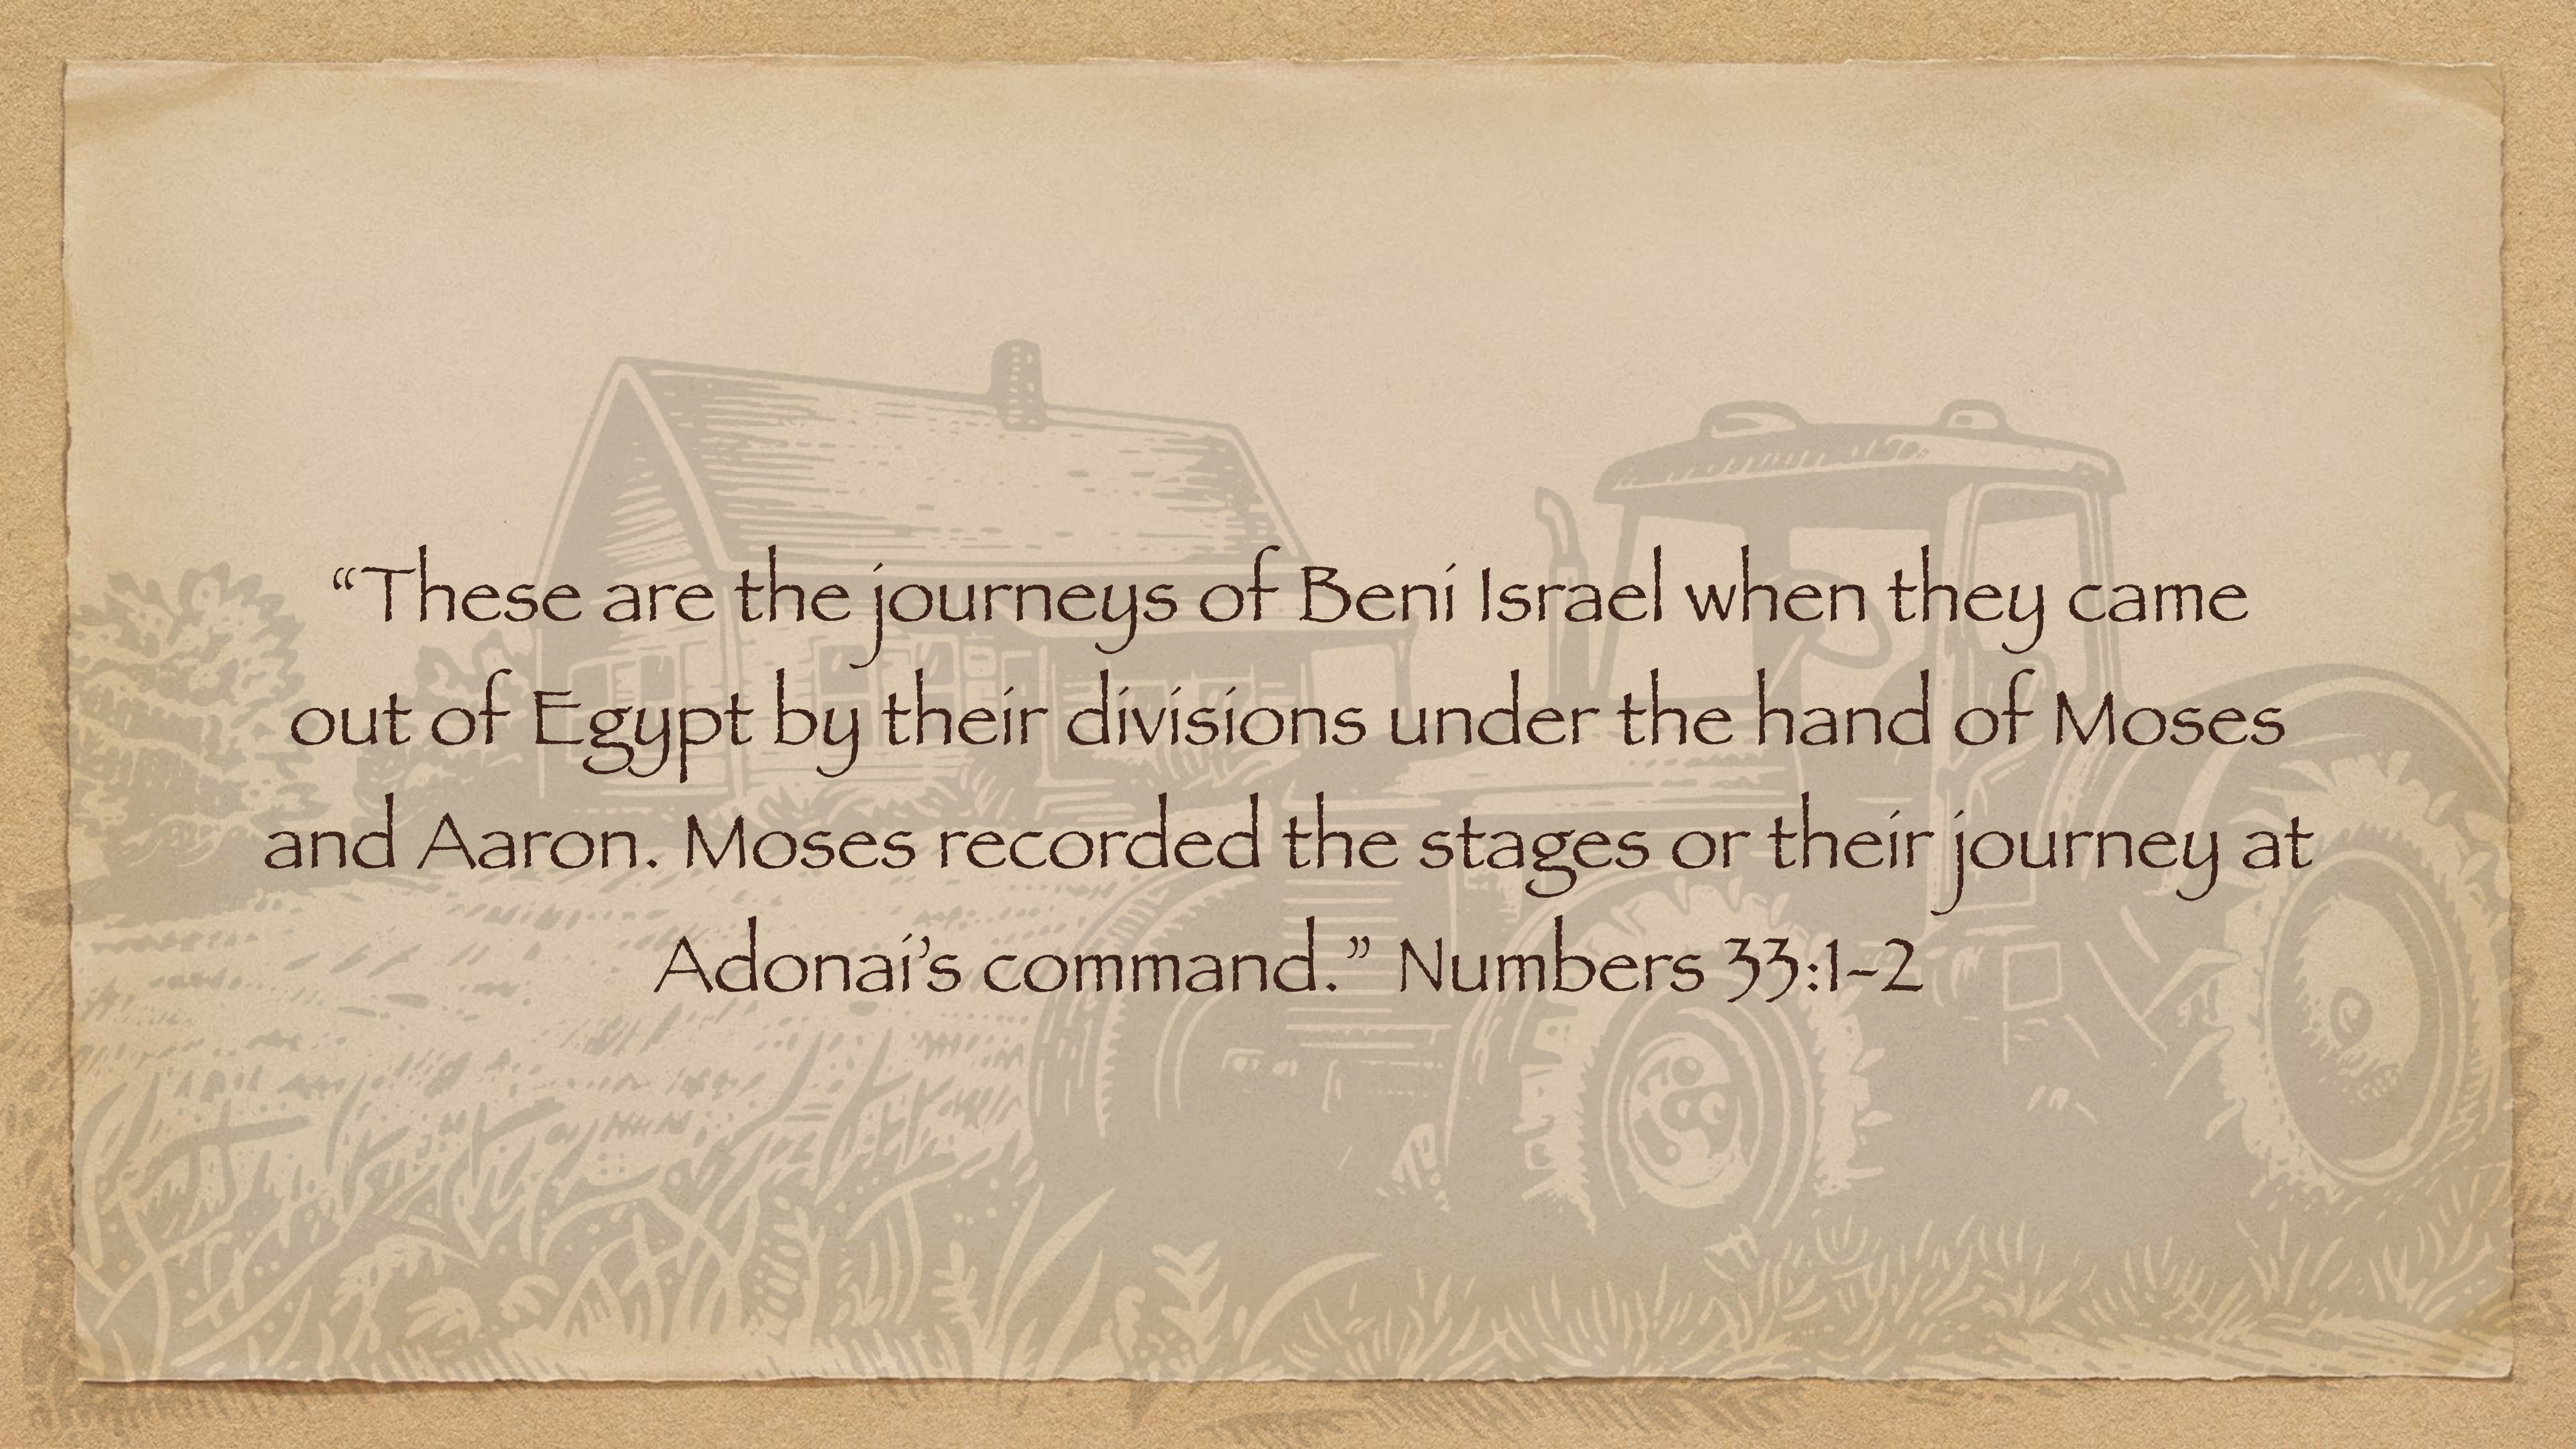

“Therefore my heart was glad and my tongue rejoiced, moreover my body also will live in hope.” TLV

“For this reason my heart was glad; and my tongue rejoiced and now my body too will live on in the certain hope. CJB

“Whenever a man makes a vow to Adonai or swears an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he is not to violate his word but do everything coming out of his mouth.”

Numbers 30:2

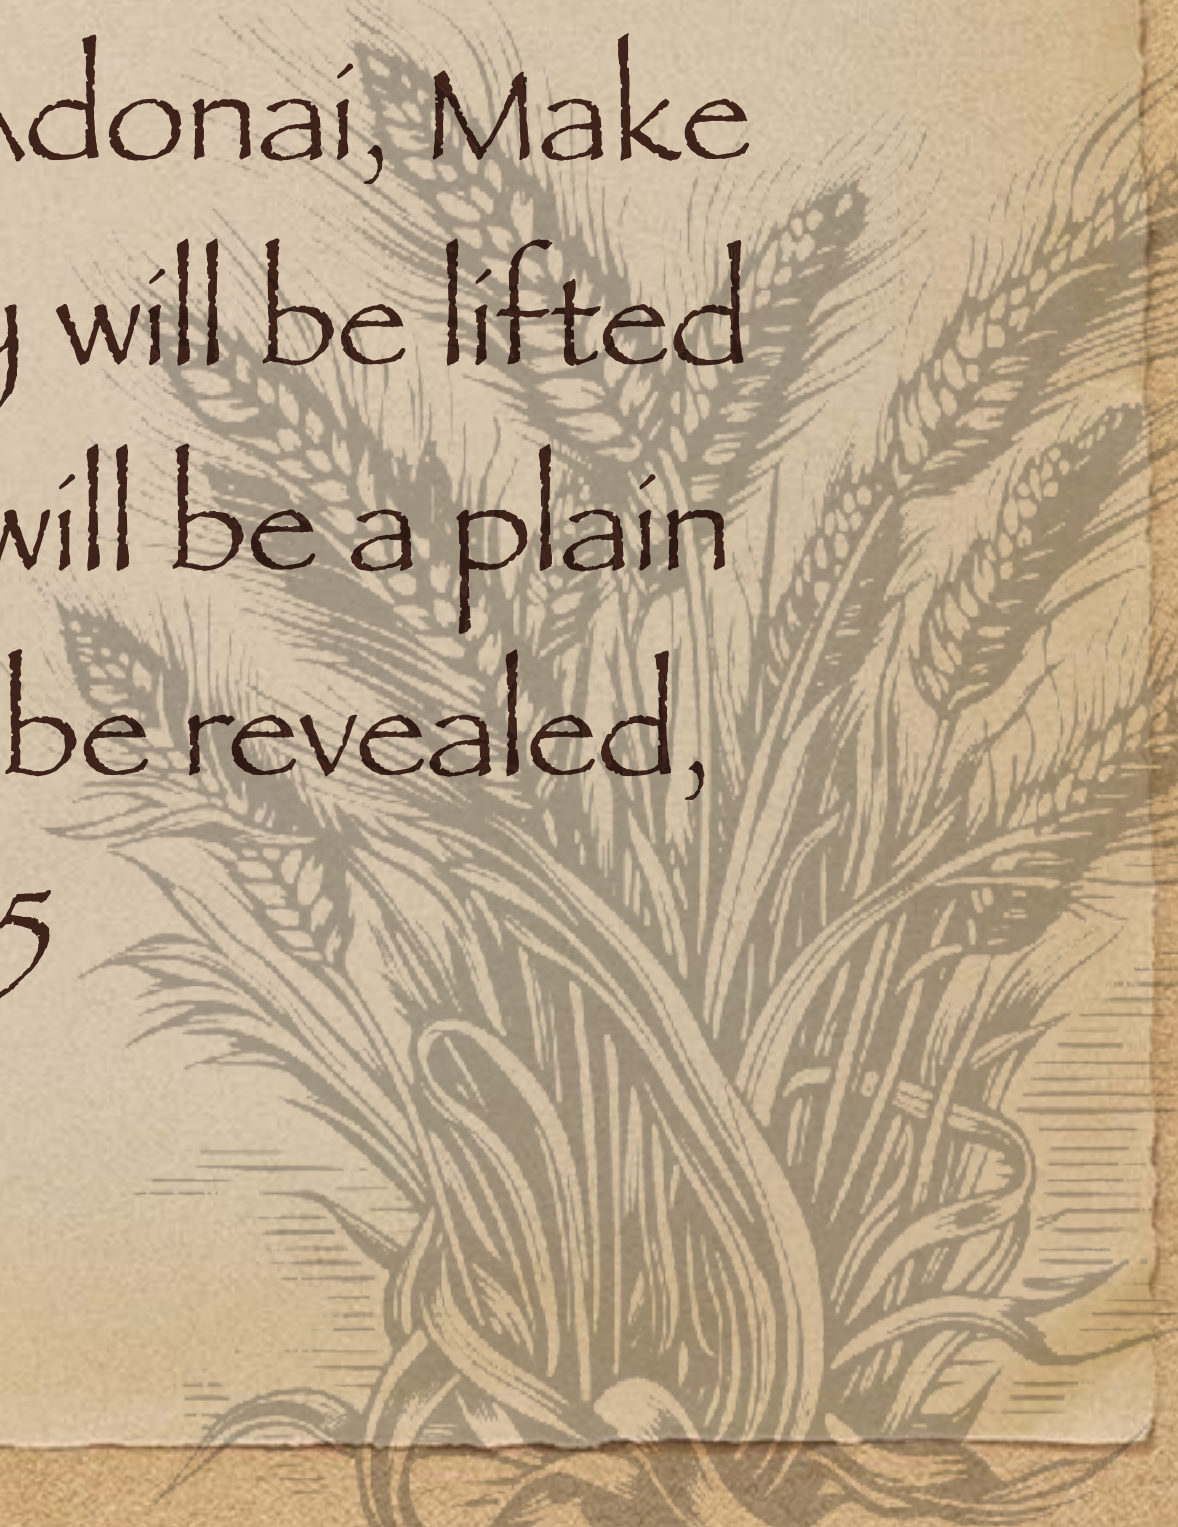

A faint, sepia-toned illustration serves as the background. On the left, a simple house with a chimney is visible. On the right, a large tractor with prominent rear wheels is depicted. The foreground is filled with stylized, sketchy lines representing tall grass or reeds.

“These are the journeys of Bení Israel when they came out of Egypt by their divisions under the hand of Moses and Aaron. Moses recorded the stages or their journey at Adonai’s command.” Numbers 33:1-2

“Comfort, comfort My people,” says your God. Speak kindly to the heart of Jerusalem and proclaim to her that her warfare has ended, that her iniquity has been removed. For she has received from Adonai’s hand double for all her sins.” Isaiah 40:1-2

A voice cries out “In the wilderness, prepare the way of Adonai, Make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley will be lifted up, every mountain and hill made low, the rough ground will be a plain and the rugged terrain smooth. The glory of Adonai will be revealed, and all flesh will see it together.” Isaiah 40:3-5

ALL see together.
ALL means ALL!!

“Hear O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love Adonai your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These words, which I am commanding you today, are to be on your heart. You are to teach them diligently to your children, and speak of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down and when you rise up. Bind them as a sign on your hand, they are to be as frontlets between your eyes, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.”
